

LAMARA QOQIAURI

Lamara Qoqiauri finished Tbilisi Komarov Physics-Maths School. She successfully graduated from Ivane Javakhishvili State University, faculty of Economics, speciality - Finances and Credit. She passed a complete course of post-graduate studentship in the Institute of Economics and law in Georgian Science Academy. By leadership of Academician Vasil Chantladze she maintained a candidacy dissertation in 1986 and in 1987 she was awarded a degree of a docent. In 2003 Lamara Qoqiauri maintained a Doctor's degree for the theme «Formation and development of the investment market in Georgia». Lamara Qoqiauri is the first professor woman in Georgia in the sphere of Finances and Credit. She is also among the leading Georgian economists in the sphere of generally accepted indexing and quoting. Lamara Qoqiauri has published 270 scientific works, mainly about finances, banks, innovations and investments including 25 monographs and 22 text-books. We should highlight, scientific articles printed in International Impact Factor journals in foreign countries and monographs published abroad in English. As well as, her intensive participation in international scientific conferences: Korea, Italy, Japan, Singapore, Turkey, Egypt, Russia, Azerbaijan, Latvia, Austria, Poland, Hungary, etc. Ms. Lamara Qoqiauri began to work in Georgian National Bank according to her speciality while being still a first-year student. In 1978-2008 she worked at Tbilisi State University at the faculty of Finances, Money Circulation and Credits first as a laboratory assistant, then as a scientist-worker, a docent, professor. In 2009-2014 she worked at Georgian Technical University in Business Engineering Department as a full-time professor. She has been elected as a real member of economics of Georgia and Kazakhstan and of New York Science Academy. Since 2016 until today Ms. Lamara Qoqiauri has been working in the Institute of National Innovative Researches as a leading scientist-worker. In addition to her scientific work, in 1992 she set up and since then she has been running the first English language Intensive studies private school in Georgia.

NINO QOQIAURI

Nino Qoqiauri finished Private English School „Nino“. She graduated from Tbilisi I. Javakhishvili State University, faculty of philology. She also graduated from Gori State University, speciality – Business Administration. In 2015 she got a magister's degree. Her main scientific direction has been innovations since she was a student. She has been a doctoral since 2018 and has been working on a doctorant work, „State Innovative Politics and Its Priorate Directions in Georgia“ with the leadership of professor Lia Eliava. She has published a monograph „Innovations“ together with a co – author and ten scientific articles, three of them are published in impactfactor international scientific journals.

ISBN: 978-83-61429-15-9

Financial Markets

Authors: Lamara Qoqiauri, Nino Qoqiauri

Editor Prokopenko Olha

Financial Markets

AUTHORS

LAMARA QOQIAURI • NINO QOQIAURI

EDITOR

PROKOPENKO OLHA