Knowledge of foreign languages is the key to success in the modern world. Learning a foreign language is not an easy thing, but a long and slow process that takes a lot of time, energy and efforts. Nowadays it is especially important to know foreign languages. English is an international unit of communication but it does not reduce the degree of importance of studying other languages. English sometimes defines the fate of the people and even saves lives. What is its significance? It is simple to answer, languages give more independence in the world. Everyone is trying to learn the language in order to improve their future and for several practical purposes:

1. Career. Indeed, almost all organizations with foreign partners consequently require negotiations, contracting, signing contracts, etc. all this is carried out on the international language. One can always freely communicate with business partners, participate in international conferences, read international magazines and newspapers about business.

2. Education. Actually, for modern young person knowledge of foreign language makes it possible to study in prestigious foreign universities. Because the popularity and prestige are the main selection criteria for admission. The gradutors of foreign universities can get international diplomas, it enables to get a decent job around the world and gives a great chance of success in life.

3. Trips abroad. Young people want to travel abroad and see many different countries and cities, to learn the culture and customs of other nations. The important point is that it is a great opportunity to plunge into the world of mysterious and to communicate with people of another ideology, religion, race and mentality.

Free knowledge of another language enables a deeper understanding that should benefit not only the person but also the country, the exchange of information achievements in various fields of life, culture and customs. As a result it allows a closer cooperation between countries and a better international communication.
