

THE ROLE OF SPORT IN THE LIFE OF STUDENTS

Vodzynsky O.R., student; SSU, Group SP-801

A sport is a limit, fits a game and also a degree, on which this practiced matched ample. A participation in a sporting events does not only ensure an outlets a fun and a re-enactment though, and ensures a platform, which together reduces people from regions, religions, languages and customs and matching traditions. From these platforms, values to a way of unity, fraternity, equality, justice, and similar social collaboration advanced among partners. It means, that sports freak a key role in a socialization process of an individual. A sport cultivates a positive attitude, like for example that, how to clash with an aspect a different situations, how to cross a critical situations, and how to administer it immediate to the one of a chance and an abandonment. Sport raises the quality of life, because it makes a person physically, mentally, economically and socially. A person who is physically, mentally, economically and socially does not only, it turns out, is part of the good composition of his family, but also of the whole society as well. Participation in athletic programs at college and university level helps to improve the spirit of success, leadership and various social values among students. Participation in sports activities helps to include socialization as well as academic achievement of students. All above the stated discussions clearly show that participation in sports and physical activity is obvious to everyone, because it develops person not only physically, but also makes him an active social member of society.

Participation in sports activities helps to regulate immoral activities and to develop positive social behaviors among students. Sport creates a positive attitude, how to deal with different situations, how to cope with emergencies, success, lack of management, etc. Sport has a positive impact on positive development. For example, the social relations, the spirit of success, the fraternity and the youth of the country. This helps to reduce the negative attitude of young people.

In conclusion, participation in sports activities helps to enter socialization as well as academic achievement of students, helps to enter the promotion of society and plays a vital role in the socialization of students. In addition, it also motivates the person in the direction of practical affairs.

Language advisor Associate Professor Liashenko I.V.